

Young Brothers/Young Heroes The Darryl and Ryan Tsatsos Memorial Scholarship

Essay Theme: An Everyday Hero in Our Community – A True Difference Maker

Deadline: 6/1/23

Available to: High School Seniors and current College Students from the St. Lawrence Catholic Community

Award Amount: 2 Awards of $500 each

Paul and Julie Tsatsos, in remembrance of their sons, Darryl and Ryan, want to recognize two outstanding students from the St. Lawrence Catholic Community who have demonstrated the qualities of a hero – kindness, courage and selflessness. To be eligible, you must be enrolled or planning to enroll in college for the upcoming Fall Semester. Receipt of the scholarship is contingent upon proof of enrollment. For consideration, you must submit the application form found on www.stlawrence-school.com under “Advancement”, along with a 500-word essay that describes how you have personally been a hero by committing an act of kindness, showing courage or demonstrating true selflessness. Essay rules and judgment criteria can be found on the website.

Award will be sent directly to the college in which the recipient is enrolled.
